

I do not want the proposed LPFM rule changes to remove translator stations that exist today. The translator stations are there because we enjoy their programming and support them. I (and many others) have contributed money to keep them broadcasting. An example is K-LOVE in Sioux City, IA.